Garden City Man Planning a Gigantic Improvement.

Would Build Automobile Roads Through Western Kansas.

NO OTHER VEHICLES.

These Highways for Exclusive Use of Auto Drivers.

Private Company Is Being Organized for This Purpose.

Garden City, Kan., Nov. 1.—J. R. Drilling is working on the organization of a company for the construction of automobile roads in the western half of the state. Mr. Drilling's plan is to form a company and as soon as an organization is effected, he will apply for a charter.

His plan is to run lines from Garden City east to Hutchinson, Great Bend, Wichita or other important points and west to the state line. When he has the east and west lines operating he thinks it will be possible to run north and south lines. He plans to charge a toll for automobiles and to make a road exclusively for automobiles.

Mr. Drilling is showing his plan to the business men of the town this week and expects to interest them in the work.

DOLLIVER ISN'T SCARED.

Senator Willing to Accept Draft for Services at Wichita.

Wichita, Nov. 1.—At the end of his lecture Wednesday evening Miss Hamilton, the manager of the lecture lyceum, asked Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, how he would take the compensation.

"A check will do," said the big and handsome orator from Iowa, with a pleasant smile.

Now it happens that Miss Hamilton doesn't know enough finance to wad a small shotgun, and this reply of the senator put her in a flutter. Because she was afraid that the senator might ask for currency, and currency she did not have. So she provided herself with a draft on Kansas City, and when the senator said he would take a check, she thought she must have made a terrible mistake.

"Of course," said the senator, seeing her hesitation, "if you desire I will follow the prevailing fashion and take my check, duly certified, but that is not at all necessary."

"I have a draft, senator," said Miss Hamilton, apologetically.

"I'll be glad to have it, certainly," said the senator, as he took it. "It is good enough for anybody."

And Miss Hamilton was greatly relieved. Senator Dolliver after the lecture said to a reporter that along with the rest of the public, traveling and otherwise, that the situation in respect to currency was not bothering him; that he found he could travel with ease and that certified checks and cashier checks met all necessary requirements.

"I have but recently come from the far south," he said. "I have been in virtually all the southern states. I have met the business men and bankers wherever I have gone. I found the banks solvent and the business community in the midst of a substantial prosperity. Since the development of Sunday, when conditions local to New York resulted in action by the clearing house there, with subsequent protective action upon the part of all the bankers over the country, I find that the people are accepting the situation and doing everything to assist in the matter. That which I have seen in your community today I have witnessed in other places."

"I think," said the senator, "that the crest of the prosperity wave we have been riding is now at its height. The volume of business we have been transacting is almost incredible. Industrial reports like that of the steel industry, show that we have been doing three times more business than we have ever done in our history before. If there should now be a healthy recession, it might have beneficial effects, although those of us who believe that we haven't quite enough would object vigorously to the recession."

SANTA FE PORTER ON TRIAL.

Ed Walker Charged With Shooting a Man Near Wichita.

Wichita, Nov. 1.—The case of the state against Ed Walker promises to be one of unusual interest as men of well known legal talent are arrayed on each side of the case.

The defendant in the case was a porter in the employ of the Santa Fe railroad company. He is charged with assaulting William Nolan with intent to kill.

The Santa Fe railroad company is defending Walker. Judge Smith, an attorney for that corporation, and J. D. Houston being the defendant's lawyers. County Attorney Will Ayres is being assisted by D. M. Dale and S. B. Amidon.

This is Walker's second trial for the offense, the first trial resulting in a hung jury.

The state alleges that William Nolan, who was in the employ of the United Gas company at Valley Center last spring, went to catch a Santa Fe train here March 5 to return to Valley Center and that being late in getting to the depot he caught the blind baggage and while there was ordered to get off by Walker.

Nolan replied that he would as soon as the train stopped at the crossing in the north part of town. He stated that he intended to get inside a car then. It is said in the information in the case that Walker pushed Nolan from the rapidly moving train and at the same time shot him in the side of the face.

A jury was secured this morning and the county attorney then presented his case. The trial continues this afternoon.

DAN O'LEARY IS DRAFTED.

Former Wichita Catcher Secured by Memphis.

Wichita, Nov. 1.—Dan O'Leary, the popular catcher of the Wichita team in 1905 and 1906, has been drafted by Memphis of the southern league and in all probability will play with that team next season.

O'Leary tried out the fore part of last season with Atlanta in the southern league, but failed to make good on account of a poor arm. He figured in a trade with Memphis but was not retained by the latter club.

He signed with Rock Island in the Three I league, which is near his home and played there during the summer. The past season was one of the best in his career, his arm being in good form. He became popular with the fans of Rock Island as he did here and had been engaged to manage the Rock Island team next season, had he not been drafted.

O'Leary batted .320 this year, which is about his clip. However, his value as a batsman is much greater than the average shows as he is one of the best pinch hitters that has been seen in Rock Island.

Jack Holland sent the first contracts for players for 1908 out today. Two contracts were mailed, one of them being for the catcher in Arizona, whom Becker recommended. The other is also a catcher. Holland will not announce their names until the contracts are signed and returned.

DECANNIERE TO CINCINNATI.

Star Southpaw of O. A. K. League Sifted for Tryout With Reds.

Independence, Kan., Nov. 1.—In regard to the inquiry received by the Reporter several days ago from Louis Heilbroner, a Cincinnati Red baseball scout, relative to pitchers in the Kansas-Oklahoma league, Mr. Truby, manager of the Independence team, says he thinks Frank Decanniere of the local team is eligible for a big league try-out.

The local south-paw showed in several games that he had the "goods," and the only fault to be found by the local management is that Frank refuses to work hard at times. In the big league a man doesn't last long if he doesn't deliver his best at every stage of the game. A price of $500 is placed on the southpaw.

---suits and overcoats at $25

Again the smart tailoring houses of Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Alfred Benjamin & Co have scored new triumphs in the garments at this price. The marks of their master craftsmen are visible in the making of each suit and each overcoat — we have an enormous variety of patterns, but not enough of each kind to risk commonness. The suits are in silk mixed materials in all the season's original shades and color mixtures. The fit is perfect, there is no skimping of cloth or style. The overcoats are elegant in fabric, fashioning and finish. Hart Schaffner & Marx thought we would retail these garments at $28 to $30. We ask but
